

On May 13, 2014 Lviv Academy of Commerce held a public lecture on leadership initiatives, organised by the Head of International Relations and Strategic Development Department Tetyana Shtanko, Associate Professor of International Economic Relations Department Yulia Polyakova, and Associate Professor of Business Economics Department Ruslan Lupak. The lecture was held in the framework of the international project La Manche "Leadership and Change Management in Higher Education" of Tempus program.

Among the lecture participants were the students of the Institute of Economy and Finance and the Department of International Economic Relations. The main speaker was Tetyana Shtanko who revealed the role of international cooperation of HEIs in developing student initiatives, modernization of the educational process and encouraging the improvement of skills and leadership potential.

Associate Professors Yulia Polyakova and Ruslan Lupak talked with students about the trends and prospects of their use of the opportunities in international cooperation offered by Lviv Academy of Commerce, which has a direct impact on personal development, gaining a positive experience and career growth.

The public lecture finished with evaluation of content and direction of the presented material, comments, remarks and discussion among participants.