The La MANCHE project's overall objective is to promote the modernization of the Higher Education (HE) in Armenia, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova and Ukraine by:

- building governance and management capacities at the participating Higher Education Institutions (HEIs)
- initiating sustainable dialogue on the HE reforms among relevant interest groups
- empowering students to become more actively involved in decision making at the HEIs.

The La MANCHE consortium is a partnership of 29 institutions – 23 HEIs from the Eastern Neighboring Area, five HEIs from the EU and one business development company from the UK. The consortium represents ten countries: five Partner Countries (PCs) from the Eastern Neighboring Area – Armenia, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova and Ukraine, and five EU countries – Bulgaria, France, Greece, Portugal and the UK.

La MANCHE specific objectives

- To map out current leadership skills and prevalent management models at HEIs in the participating PCs
- To map out the broader environment and socio-economic conditions in which HE modernization processes in the PCs evolve
- To transfer context-sensitive good governance practices and models for effective leadership and change management from EU HEIs to HEIs in Armenia, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova and Ukraine
- To build the leadership capacities of the senior management at PCs HEIs with a focus on transformational leadership
- To involve EU and PCs HEI leaders in interactive peer learning and exchange of good practices in the field of HE governance
- To provide a platform for critical dialogue and to promote joint problem solving and interaction among PCs HEIs and other key stakeholders in HE; in particular, to stimulate grassroots leadership initiatives among students
- To develop and promote a context-sensitive strategy for leading and managing change in HE in the region
- To raise awareness on the European Higher Education Modernization Agenda and the need for HE reforms in the PCs.

La MANCHE main activities and outcomes

- Self-assessment and external analysis of leadership and management skills and models at PCs HEIs.
- Changing Higher Education Institutions in Societies in Transition: In-depth Study Report on Modernization Processes in HE in PCs and their Implications for HEIs
- Handbook of Innovative European Governance Practices in HE
- Capacity building activities including development of syllabuses and guidance materials in leadership and change management
- Trainings of trainers in leadership and change management, followed by local multiplication trainings at the PCs HEIs
- Promotion of transnational collaboration of EU and PCs HE leaders and other key stakeholders in HE through the La MANCHE Virtual Think Tank
- Development of Strategy for Leading and Managing Change in Higher Education in the Eastern Neighboring Area (La MANCHE Strategy).
