LaMANCHE - Leading and Managing Change in Higher Education (TEMPUS IV)

- Why: common challenges (competition, internationalization, limited financial resources, irrelevance of graduates' skills {outdated curricula}, weak links between education, research and innovation, underdeveloped knowledge-transfer infrastructure at the universities, lack of entrepreneurial, creative and innovation skills.)
 - Aim: develop leadership skills and introduce the culture of streamlined change management
 - How: involve all the stakeholders in the change management
 - Who: Institutions from Bulgaria, Armenia, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova, Ukraine, Greece, France, Portugal, and United Kingdom

LaMANCHE VTT

Mission

- forming an internet based community for sustainable dialogue on higher education reforms among relevant stakeholders in Georgia.
- raising awareness on the EHEA Modernisation Agenda and structural reforms needed in the higher education sector.

Vision

- building a diverse sustainable community of various stakeholders in higher education committed to become opinion formers and opinion leaders supporting universities in the processes of leading and managing change.

Why are you here?

Because:

- you believe in the importance of the universities' role in developing the society
 - the stakeholders should get together to discuss how the universities should change in accordance with the current trends:
we need to provide a platform for critical dialogue and promote joint problem solving and interaction among universities and key stakeholders in higher education

Who are planned to be here today?

- Policy makers in higher education
 - Leaders, academic and non-academic staff of higher education institutions
 - Business representatives
 - Civil society representatives
 - Student organizations representatives
 - Advocates for gender equality in higher education

Discussion

What are the current problems and challenges of the universities today?

We'd like to hear about your opinions on how to establish stronger ties among the stakeholders

How should we change?
