

Work Package 5

Cherkasy State Technological University

Yuriy Vdovychen

Associate Professor of department of International Economics of CSTU, PhD in Economics

Cherkasy State Technological University

- Cherkasy State Technological University is one of the leading state schools in Ukraine that provides highly qualified training.
- Over 52 years of its history the university has established traditions and values in educational policy training reaching European standards.
- CSTU has proved to be a well-known outstanding state institution due to its achievements in education and research.

The first training in leadership and change management

The first training in leadership and change management

The first training in leadership and change management

Institutional freedom and academic performance in European Universities

- how institutional freedom is connected with academic performance,
- the evolution of institutional freedom,
- conducted an assessment of Institutional Freedom: academic autonomy, financial autonomy, organizational autonomy, staffing autonomy
- examined global ranking of universities and summarized the results.

The second training

The second training

The second training

Managing change in the higher education

- change management,
- transactional and transformational changes,
- leaders' styles,
- problems of change processes in university,
- problems of student leadership performance and their contribution to the management reforms,
- problems of corporate culture and reasons to reject changes

The third training

The third training

The third training

Effective communication skills

- Practical approach to developing effective communication skills (The Personality Compass) and Myers-Briggs Type Indicator,
- carried exercises in Understanding Preferences in Group Work,
- to determine dominant and sub-dominant personality type, that helped us to understand how preferences affect our group work,
- have been identified all personality types.

The public lecture

The public lecture

The public lecture

International training programs and internships abroad.

La Manche, Fulbright, Copernic, Study Tours to Poland, Korean Government Scholarship Program, The Global Undergraduate Exchange Program, DAAD, Erasmus Mundus, Erasmus+.

Participation in these programs will not only enhance the educational level of the participants, but also will improve skills in leadership and management.

Thank you for your attention!

You can contact me at yv_v@ukr.net