

WORK PACKAGE 5

at Volodymyr Dahl East Ukrainian National University

Olesya Gladushyna

Department of International Cooperation

First Training in Leadership and Change Management

- analysis of diverse definitions of effective leaders and various models of leadership
- possibilities for creating transformational leadership capacity at the university
- problems of student leadership performance and their contribution to the management reforms

Statements

- leadership is a process and can be learned by ordinary people
- opportunities to make changes exist at all levels of university organizations
- each of us is a leader or role model for someone
- ordinary people can become extraordinary leaders
- none of us knows our true strength until challenged
- it is a collective task to discover and liberate leader within each of us

Second Training in Leadership and Change Management

Volodymyr Dahl East Ukrainian National University

- duties and responsibilities of the academic and administrative staff
- professional competencies and skills
- introduction of interdisciplinary approach into the study programme
- improvement of managerial skills

Third Training in Leadership and Change Management

- professional trainings and learning of good practices
- knowledge is pursued through community-based learning, group projects, mentoring and internship
- international programmes of mobility

Volodymyr Dahl East Ukrainian National University

Public Lecture in Grassroots Leadership

Volodymyr Dahl East Ukrainian National University

Public Lecture in Grassroots Leadership

- to focus on interactive and challenging activities
- to develop such qualities as determination, decisiveness, time management, self-confidence
- opportunities to study abroad
- tips how to write a successful motivation letter

THANK YOU
FOR YOUR ATTENTION!

